Question	Response
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Knowledgeable on the subject. Notes were easy to follow along. Sometimes forgot to bring attendance sheet and didn't bother with attendance when half the class was missing (which was kind of annoying). Could write less notes, maybe short hand them a bit more; this would leave more room to do more practice problems.

Give suggestions on how the course or how the instruction could be improved.	One of my favorite economics courses! Explained everything very well and was always very prepared for the course

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	He really knew what he was talking about and was good at explaining things to students
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	I would've liked a powerpoint to go along with the class - especially if you had to miss a class for any reason. Also, with the practice tests I would have liked separate answers with the work shown instead of just the right answer at the bottom of the question. I didn't feel like it helped me to study at all

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	he was very fair but kept his rules in line while making sure his students could succeed if they put in the effort. he was open to listen to our suggestions and he knew what he was talking about.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	I think that Bila did a great job trying to explain things and keep his class engaged. He seemed to care about the material he was teaching and the overall well being of his class. I think that he was a good instructor.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	I think the homework was a little more difficult than what we went over in class. Which can be a little frustrating at first but then eventually helps with learning in the long run. I felt like Bila was very open to questions which helped a lot too.
Give suggestions on how the course or how the instruction could be improved.	One think I would suggest would be maybe trying to incorporate more of the information into media like power points. It would make it easier to follow. Other than that, it was a great course.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Professor Bila was very enthusiastic about Economics, and this translated well to the classroom. His lectures were engaging and informative.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Occasional Technological problems with Cengage but that's it.

Give suggestions on how the course or how the instruction could be improved.	Thanks for a good Semester Professor Bila. I enjoyed learning not only about Economics, but also about your interesting background growing up in Mongolia. Good luck in the future and thank you!
